

Welcome.

Welcome to our “Lunchtime Lecture” series. Faculty, students, undergraduate students, adjuncts and visiting faculty are all invited to use our series as a forum to present research project, practice speaking at a conference, or to explore some ideas and receive feedback from the audience. Participation as a speaker or audience member is open to all, on-campus and off. you know of someone who enjoy participation, kindly invite them to join in!

About this term’s speakers.

You’re invited to participate so please be encouraged to share your research and ideas with everyone at Simmons.

This term our speakers include new faculty member, Naresh Agarwal, speaking on the boundary of ‘context’ in information behavior..., Lisa Woronzoff-Dashkoff on her educational experience in Amsterdam, G Benoit on digital object repurposing (for ASIST); auroraDL, a multilingual digital library management system. anticipate one talk addressing grant-writing.

Thursdays, 1:00-2:00
P207, Palace Road Bldg
Simmons College
Schedule (so far...)

⇒ Sept 17

[TBA] [abstract]

⇒ Oct 8

G Benoit, Ph.D.: The “beautiful” information: philosophy of aesthetics and information visualization. 2nd International Conference on the Theory of Information Retrieval,

UK [abstract]

⇒ Oct 15

Naresh Agarwal, Ph.D.: the boundary of ‘context’ in information behavior: towards a contextual identity framework.

[abstract]

⇒ Oct 22

G Benoit, Ph.D.: Repurposing objects: case study of seven international publishing firms.

[abstract]

⇒ Nov 5

Elizabeth Woronzoff: Gender: M or F or ... The classification and language of gender [abstract]

⇒ Nov 19

Melanie Kimball, Ph.D.: Children ‘To See Beauty and to It’: A Library/Museum 1914-1918 [abstract]